Expedition for the Earth September 2016

Why: For the adventure and for the environment! All funds raised go directly towards saving Nova Scotia's wild places.

Who: Environmentally-conscious, active adventurers, looking for a once in a lifetime challenge.

Where: "The Land of Fire and Ice" - This 7-day fully-guided trek explores Iceland's breathtaking Fjallabak Nature Reserve. Uniquely colourful volcanoes, endless valleys and inviting hot springs are all waiting for you.

Cost: Participants pay their own costs, with a separate fundraising goal. All funds raised go directly to protecting Nova Scotia's natural legacy (donations are tax deductible).
